CALL FOR ATTENDANCE

Teachers and practitioners are invited to attend the 3rd International Conference on Early Language Learning and Multilingual Education in Early Childhood, to be held on 19–20 September 2025 at the Research Dissemination Centre (KEDEA), Aristotle University of Thessaloniki. The conference is organised by the Greek Applied Linguistics Association (GALA) and the School of English, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, in cooperation with ELLME Network (Early Language Learning and Multilingual Education Network).

About the Conference

This international event will explore multilingualism in early childhood, from birth until the start of compulsory education (around ages 6–7), and the transition into primary education (around age 8). The conference will provide a dynamic platform to discuss the interconnections between language acquisition, cognitive development, family and social engagement.

It brings together professionals at all career stages and offers a stimulating environment for exchanging ideas, sharing experiences, and building connections.

Language

The official language of the conference is English.
